

Radio Radio Are You Getting This
Farewell Continental

Listen to the song for timing & rhythm, here are the chords used throughout the song:

Intro

C# F# F Bb B X2

Verse

C# F# F Bb B

Can you hear me screaming through the static snow
I am full of secrets that nobody knows
Will you let me hold you in the dark of night?
I will let you hold me when it feels alright

Chorus

C# Dm
Radio, Radio (Are You Getting This)
Bb F#
Loud and Clearly, here we are [x2]

Verse

C# F# F Bb B

Are you getting better or are you getting worse?
I am drifting deeper underneath this curse
Will you hold on harder than ever before?
I can try my hardest, I can try no more

Chorus

C# Dm
Radio, Radio (Are You Getting This)
Bb F#
Loud and clearly, here we are [x3]

Bridge (Talking):

Farewell Continental

God, I guess you can't love everything
We love to be supportive of a lot of music
And it's just not realistic that you're gonna love everything
You know, I mean there's a certain amount of crud that gets through
Sort of the cracks, it just sorta seeps in like a disease
1996 called and they really need their sound back
It's really interesting when a band gets together
And thinks I wanna do something that's been done before a million times
Farewell Continental, you can see this weekend.

Chorus

C# Dm

Radio, Radio (Are You Getting This)

Bb

F#

Loud and clearly, here we are

[x4]
