Oh Lord Im in love, love, Im in love

You're so lovable you're so kind

Your perfumes branded in my mind

You got a beautiful necklace hanging round your neck

It was the one I bought you on our trip out west

Im in love, love, Im in love

Oh Lord Im in love, love, Im in love

You're so simple yet so refined

You love the city but you hate the life

You got the taste of honey sitting on your tongue

You won't say you love me till I take you home

Im in love, love, Im in love
