**This is the favorite song of Jerome, so I decided to play this song.
but I can't find the chords of this song on the net so I decided to play this by ear, I don't know if this is the exact chords of the song, but it will sound alike when you play the song by this chord. Hope you'll like it.

Chords:

Verses/Pre-Chorus/Chorus: G-D-Em-C

Bridge: Am-Bm-E7

*Plucking Intro, Verses.

I.

I'll take the sun and have it placed on the band of a ring
And put it on your left hand
Walk around with you, proud to tell the world I'm your man
Shout it from every mountain, if you say I can

Pre-Chorus:

Girl, what you want?
If I got anything to say about it
That's what you get
Girl, what you need?
Don't ever hesitate to tell me so
Baby girl, you're supposed to know

Chorus:

That nothing is ever too much
You want the world,
But to me, it's not even enough
I would give you the heavens in exchange for your love
Baby, just know that nothing is ever too much for you girl
Nothing is ever too much for you, girl

II.

Tell me you want the stars to light up the sky
Make the call
Girl, it's no problem at all
Make them change colors, then whenever you like
Make them fall
No one is ever too tall

Pre-Chorus:

Girl, what you want?

If I got anything to say about it

That's what you get

Girl, what you need?

Don't ever hesitate to tell me so

Baby girl, you're supposed to know

Chorus:

That nothing is ever too much

You want the world,

But to me it's not even enough

I would give you the heavens in exchange for your love

Baby just know that nothing is ever too much for you girl

Bridge:

Make a command

Girl, clap your hands

And you will see that I'm for real

Tell me your dreams

Leave it to me

Girl, what you want, you will receive
