Intro

Am            E                    F                    C C/B
Gone too fast, like the sunlight, the morning,
Am            E                    F                    C
seasons change, like a face getting old.

Riff

Am E F C D F x2

Verse

Am                    E                    F                    C C/B
Times, good times on the waves of devotion,
Am            E                    F                    C C/B
Rising up then it starts to fall.
Am                    E                    F                    C C/B
Who would have thought you d be the one to get tired,
Am            E                    F                    C C/B
tired of leaving, tired of life.

Chorus

G                    Am                    F C C/B
don t give up, you have us we ll find a way
G                    Am                    F
don t give up, don t give up

Am            E                    F                    C C/B
Falling fast as a new day s dawning
Am            E                    F                    C C/B
holding back as it cuts you deep
Am                    E                    F                    C C/B
Who would have thought you d be the one to get tired
Am            E                    F                    C C/B
your tired of leaving tired of life

Chorus

G                    Am                    F C C/B
don t give up, you have us we ll find a way
G                    Am                    F
don t give up, don t give up
