Lyrics:

1. im not gonna wait,For the world to turn my way. if i m gonna learn im gonna have to make my own mistakes every day im gonna reach for the sky if i crash and burn somewhere along the way at least i know i tried.

Chours: This is life
we are passengers on this ride dont ever let a chance go by get on board let it take you high this is life you have to take a risk and hold on tight there will be no hand out on this ride this is life

2. when darkness falls shadows cast there douts on me the light to see has taken sight away from what i need.
so i pray
and everything is clearer than the morning, i wake up and then realise im still a live after the falling.

(chours 3times)
