Friday night is the worst night to be alive.
Asus2 C D Asus2
Would you help me get out of the firing line?
Still no word from the sisters
Theyâ€™re too good for this life
no word from the sisters
tell me tell me tell me that weâ€™re still tight

Sitting on the songs from the back of the bus
is the best and the worst of both of us
sitting on the songs from the back of the bus
is the best and the worst of both of us

Electro how retro, dancing at the disco I am the tempo.
then you know youâ€™re getting old because youâ€™re going home say what you will I will see you in hell Where were all,
where weâ€™re all right now
Where were all,
where weâ€™re all right now

All of these years for my sins, for my sins
sit yourself down
and I will get me a pen you draw tattoos and I will ink them in on your arms on your skin all over all over

sit yourself down
you draw the tattoos and I will ink them in on your arms on your skin on your back all over

Isnâ€™t it funny how you spit all the bad words out there in the blood as they fall out of your mouth

Oh holy molar you can be my savior
I will thread you on a string and wear you as a treasure Under my jumper under my jumper
The bass beats down and the drums get bigger

Friday night is the worst night to be alive
so shoot me down and weâ€™ll all feel fine
Still no word from the sisters
No word from the sisters
One got lost but six shine bright

Sitting on the songs from the back of the bus
is the best and the worst of both of us
