                              G
You got no brain, you can t contain. You keep driving me insane.
Take the plunge, take the fall. You drive me up the wall.
Get a friend you can call, then the writing s on the wall.
Get a shock, a suprise. Only then you ll realise.
CHORUS :
 Cause I can see what you ve done.
You can see you cannot run.
And you don t know what you want in your life.
Use your mind, stop and think. Will you swim or will you sink?
Your so tense, your so dense. Your lacking common sence.
Get a life you can live, and a gift that you can give.
Can t you see, I can t say. Why your going the wrong way.
