

Highland Road Fiddler's Green

All chords are better played as power-chords, but can also be played as barrÃ". Pay attention to the different strumming-rhythms in the last verse.

Bm Bm A 4x

Bm
Fife was a shadow across the Forth as the Granton boat pulled out

A Bm
Over the sea and the solid earth the mist lay all about

G D G A
And a rising wind from the Isle of May o'er the ruffled waters strode
Bm A Bm G G C
And blew us a clear October day to ride on the Highland Road

Bm
There s a winding road from Glenfarg to the mouth of the river Tay

A Bm
The mountains beckon beyond Dunkeld to lead us on our way

G D G A
Now Killicrankie s famous Pass, a battle lost and won

Bm A Bm
From the old enchanted Atholl lands, grim heart of Caledon

D Bm
The Highland Road s been sung before and will be sung again

G D A
As long as singers give thanks for good in the way of honest men

G D A
Let him who will be contrary, the wise man will agree

Bm Bm
And sing again the Highland Road, the Highland Road for me

Bm
Now the Highland Road is a rugged road, from the Tay to the Northern shore

A Bm
A man may rise in Edinburgh town and rest in Aviemore

G D G A
Now here s to the railroad running north and the day that gave it due

Bm A Bm
From the greying spires of the ancient town to the moon of the Lairig Gru

D Bm
The Highland Road s been sung before and will be sung again

G D A
As long as singers give thanks for good in the way of honest men

G D A
Let him who will be contrary, the wise man will agree

Bm
And sing again the Highland Road, the Highland Road for me
