

1000 Hands

Fifth Harmony

[Intro] E B F#m A

It ll be til the end, give me nothing I ve ever tried
It ll be the perfect sin, something like the truest lie
Everywhere somehow, the only place I ll ever be
As long as you hold me down, oh such a liberty

Warm me with your touch, pressure from your fingertips
Never be enough, I ll do nothing but submit

I just wanna feel a thousand hands from you, only you
Can you make me feel a thousand hands from you, only you?

Grab a hold of my soul and make me feel complete
Within you ll be the one to show these goosebumps on my skin
I ll wear my heart on my sleeve, I need you to feel the pain
Would you take a bullet for me? Cause you know I ll do the same

Warm me with your touch, pressure from your fingertips
Never be enough, I ll do nothing but submit

I just wanna feel a thousand hands from you, only you
Can you make me feel a thousand hands from you, and only you?

I just want to feel a thousand, from you
A thousand hands from you
Just wanna feel a thousand

A thousand hands from you
