Song: Wrong Nothing
Artist: Fig Dish
Album: That s What Love Songs Often Do
Transcribed by: Nathan Tokarchik(atani7@aol.com)

This song is pretty easy to get the hang of after listening to the CD.
Use heavy distortion during the chorus.

E A
and it causes wear right through my eyes
E A
another chance I ve grown to realize
E A
something s wrong, there s nothing wrong,
nothing wrong at all,
E A
we have to make our problems up as we go along

(Chorus)

F# B F# B
I dwelled on you, I dwelled on you too...
F# B F# D A D A
I dwelled on you, I dwelled on you too long.

E A
I smell the rain as it beats down upon the summer stone
E A E
settles on the dots, now we re not alone
A
there s something wrong, there s nothing wrong,
nothing wrong at all,
E A
we have to make our problems up as we go along

Repeat Chorus 3 times
