

Queen Of Argyle
Fine Crowd

Capo 2nd fret.

Intro; [Dm] [C] [Dm] [Am] [C] [Dm]

[Dm] Gentlemen, it is my duty to inform you of one beauty, Though I ll [C] ask of you a favor no to [Am] seek her for a while;
For though I [Dm] know she is a creature of character and feature,
And no [C] words can paint the [Am] picture of the Queen of [C] old [Dm] Argyle.

Chorus:

And if [Dm] you could have seen her there,
boys, if you had just been there,
The [C] swan was in her movement,
and the [Am] marvel in her smile;
All the [Dm] roses in the garden,
they will bow and ask her pardon,
For not [C] one can match the [Am] beauty
of the Queen of [C] old [Dm] Argyle.

On that [Dm] evening that I mentioned,
I passed with light intention,
Through a [C] part of our dear country known for [Am] beauty and for style, In a place of [Dm] noble thinkers, of scholars and great drinkers, But [C] none could match the [Am] splendor of the Queen of [C] all [Dm] Argyle.

Chorus:

And if [Dm] you could have seen her there,
boys, if you had just been there,
The [C] swan was in her movement,
and the [Am] marvel in her smile;
All the [Dm] roses in the garden,
they will bow and ask her pardon,
For not [C] one can match the [Am] beauty
of the Queen of [C] old [Dm] Argyle.

Now lads, [Dm] well I must leave you, my intention s not to grieve you, Nor [C] for need would I deceive you oh, for I ll [Am] see you in a while;
Well I must [Dm] find some way to gain heart, to court her and to tame her,

For [C] I fear my heart s in [Am] danger from the Queen of [C] all [Dm] Argyle.

Chorus:

And if [Dm] you could have seen her there,
boys, if you had just been there,
The [C] swan was in her movement,
and the [Am] marvel in her smile;
All the [Dm] roses in the garden,
they will bow and ask her pardon,
For not [C] one can match the [Am] beauty
of the Queen of [C] old [Dm] Argyle.
