

I Know

Fiona Apple

This is a gorgeous song, played in 6/4 time, very slowly.

Forgive the funny spacing, I've tried to lay out the chords in correspondence to the words. You really have to hear the song to get it precise though.

[Intro]

C Fm C Fm
C Am G C

[Verse 1]

C Fm
So be it I'm your crowbar
C Fm
If that's what I am so far
C Am G C
Until you get out of this mess
C Fm
And I will pretend
C Fm
That I don't know of your sins
C Am Gm F
Until you are ready to confess

[Chorus]

F Dm F7 D7
But all the time, all the time
C F C F
I'll know, I'll know
C Fm
And you can use my skin
C Fm
To bury secrets in
C Am G C
And I will settle you down
C Fm
And at my own suggestion
C Fm
I will ask no questions
C Am Gm F
While I do my thing in the background
F Dm F7 D7
But all the time, all the time

I ll know, I ll know

E Am (two measures each chord)

Am D F7 G

It s ok, don t need to say it...

[Outro]

C Fm (six measures, ending on C)
