C#/F#                 C#m9                    C#/F#
    I don t understand about complementary colors
      C#m9
And what they say
C#/F#                   C#m9
    Side by side they both get bright
   C#/F#                   C#m9
Together they both get gray

C#                  Bbm
  But he s been pretty much yellow
     C#                  Bbm
And I ve been kinda blue
     A
But all I can see is
G#          F#          Fsus4
Red, red, red, red, red now
E                 C#/F#    C#m9      C#/F#      C#m9
  What am I gonna do
```

[SAME CHORDS]

I don t understand about
Diamonds and why men buy them
What s so impressive about a diamond
Except the mining

And it s dangerous work
Trying to get to you too

And I think if I didn t have to Kill, kill, kill, kill, kill, kill myself doing it
Maybe I wouldn t think so much of you

A     B     C#                                A        B
                 I ve been watching all the time
C#                                    A
    And I still can t find the tack
B                         C#
 And I wanna know is, is it okay Is it just fine
E(hold)
        Or is it my fault
Eb(hold)
        Is it my lack

C#/F#      C#m9      C#/F#     C#m9

[SAME CHORDS AS VERSE 1]

I don t understand about
The weather outside
Or the harmony in a tune
Or why somebody lied

There s solace a bit for submitting
To the fitfully cryptically true
What s happened has happened
What s coming is already on its way
With a role for me to play

I don t understand
I ll never understand
But I ll try to understand
There s nothing else I can do
```
