

The Bunkhouse
Fionn Regan

Capo 5th fret

Intro: Am C F C E7

Am

Put the chair against the handle

C

in the window light a candle

F

C

when you re smoking up

E7

the chimney slowly

Am

The wind it blew the slates off

C

your prayers float through the foxglove

F

C grip the iron

E7

bed post quickly

Am

We watched them carry the coffin

C

from the house down to the river

F

they recited

C

come away

E7

from the well

Am

At the gathering the whole room it fell silent

C

it heckled and grew violent

F

I stood at your back

C

deep breath

E7

haystack

Am

You re a business man

wrapped in a caftan

it s all you ll ever be C go count your money F
I m a painter, you re a framer C E7

Wear a warm coat F Em
It gets cold out there F Em
Out at the bunkhouse Am

Prayers float through the foxglove Am C F E7
Prayers float through the foxglove Am C F E7