Dance To Another Tune

Am
Will you look at me? Take a good look at me
C G
And tell me who it is that I am.

Am
This old mirror it is broken,
C G
There s too much drift in the dam.

G C Am
It s not the world that s spinning its me
G C Am
I go from nowhere to nowhere searching for the key.
C G F Am
There s nothing new under the sun,
C G F Am
All that will happen has already begun.

Am C G Am
Will you savor this in your mind,
Am C Gm Am
This old feeling when you re left behind?
Am C G Am
Will you hold to this as true
Am C G Am
Or will you dance to another tune?

Am
I was watching for a long time
C G
As people crossed the street.
Am
Some heavy sadness weighed upon me
C G
As I sat silent in the car seat.

G C Am
Shadows with that same look upon their faces,
G C Am
A child will die that nobody embraces,
C G F Am

Everything gets tiresome, everything grows old,
C G F Am
With each secret revealed, there s another to be told.

Am C G Am
Will you savor this in your mind,
Am C G Am
This old feeling when you re left behind?
Am C G Am
Will you hold to this as true
Am C G Am
Or will you dance to another tune?

Am
Will you look at me? Take a good look at me
C G
And tell me who it is that I am.
