

The Lions Roar
First Aid Kit

Capo on 5th

Intro

Em G D Em

Em G D Em
Now the pale morning sings of forgotten things
Em G Em
She plays a tune for those who wish to overlook
Em G D Em
The fact that they'd been blindly to see by those who preach and pray and teach
Em G Em
But she falls short and the night explodes with laughter

Em G D Em
Don't you come here and say I didn't warn you
Em G Em
About the way your world can alter
Em G D Em
And oh, how you try to command it all, still
Em G Em
Every single time it all shifts one way or another

Chorus

C G D Em
And I'm a goddamn coward, but then again so are you
C G D Em
And the lion's roar, the lion's roar
C G D Em
As we evaded and hollering for you
C G D(STRUM ONLY ONCE) Em
And I never really knew, what to do

Em G D Em

Em G D Em
Now I guess sometimes I wish you were a little more predictable
Em G Em
That I could read you just like a book
Em G D Em
For now I can only guess what's coming next
Em G Em

By examining your timid smile

Em G D(STRUM ONLY ONCE) Em

And the ways that the old, old wind, blowin'™ you back around

Chorus

C G D Em

And Iâ€™™ a goddamn fool, but then again so are you

C G D Em

And the lionâ€™™s roar, the lionâ€™™s roar

C G D Em

Has me singing out and searching for you

C G D(STRUM ONLY ONCE) Em

And I never really knew, what to do

Em G D Em

Em G D Em

A C Em

Sometimes I wish I could find my rose mary hill

A C Em

I sit there and look at the deserted lakes and Iâ€™™d sing

C G D Em

And every once in a while Iâ€™™d sing a song for you

C G D Em

That would rise above the mountains and the stars and the sea

C(STRUM ONLY ONCE) Em

And if I wanted it to, it would lead you back to me

Chorus

(STRUM ONLY ONCE ALL)

C G D Em

And the lionâ€™™s roar, the lionâ€™™s roar

C G D Em

Is something that I have heard before

C G D Em

a childrenâ€™™s tale, the lonesome wail

D Em

of a liiiiionâ€™™s roar
