CAPO 5TH FRET

C E Am F
You were waiting by the river, Your coat was soaking wet,
C E Am F
And as your arms began to shiver, Your mind began to fret.
C E Am F
Closer came the winter that would take your breath away,
C E Am F
Closer came the bitter cold that would keep your mind awake,
C, E, Am, F x2

C E Am F
And as, Time began to wander, You stood there for a while
C E Am F
And as, Your heart grew fonder, He took away your smile,
C E Am F
Kicking stones, between your shoes, You whistled not a note
C E Am F
Time spend dissecting, Every song he d ever wrote
C E
And now your, hair is saturated
F C G
And your heart has been invaded,
C E
And now you join the line,
F C G F G
Of those who, didn t make their move in time
Am, F, C, G x2

Am F C G
Wont you come home and sleep, Your mother s getting worried,
Am F C G
and it s just a trip across the sea, in a ship thats worthy of floating,
Am F C G
You and me, Back to where we can sleep.
