Five O'Clock Heroes

Well there s nothing I truly desire
Am D

There s nothing that I really want
G Em

But the times I find myself in the fire
Am D

You choose between the right and the wrong
G Em

I wish I could control all my judgements
Am D

Understand every move
G Em

Take my mind and all of itâ€™s voices
Am D

Tell me what should I do
G Em

Sometimes I feel like Iâ€™m stuck in your head
Am D G

And I wonder (who d you think you re talking to)
Em

One day Iâ€™ll move get away
Am D

From these feelings getting stronger (who d you think you re talking to)
G Em

Sometimes I feel like it s not so fun
Am D G

To see what s under (who d you think you re talking to)
Em

Let me out let me out
Am D

I donâ€™t think I can stand it any longer (who d you think you re talking to)
G Em

I remember being part of that era
I remember being so far from home
All the times I needed someone to hear me
Cos Iâ€™ve never felt so much on my own

All the trouble that you have with your future
All the rules that make your life so secure
There are people who will give their opinions
But tell me what do they know

Sometimes I feel like Iâ€™m stuck in your head
And I wonder (who d you think you re talking to)
One day Iâ€™ll move get away

From these feelings getting stronger (who d you think you re talking to)
Sometimes I feel like it s not so fun
To see what s under (who d you think you re talking to)
Let me out let me out
I donâ€™t think I can stand it any longer (who d you think you re talking to)

Sometimes I feel like Iâ€™m stuck in your head
And I wonder (who d you think you re talking to)
One day Iâ€™ll move get away
From these feelings getting stronger (who d you think you re talking to)
Sometimes I feel like it s not so fun
To see what s under (who d you think you re talking to)
Let me out let me out
I donâ€™t think I can stand it any longer (who d you think you re talking to)

Who d you think you re talking to
Who d you think you re talking to
Who d you think you re talking to
