

The Rotten Hand
Flatfoot 56

[Chorus]:

G                                  C                                  G
Build your brother up, tear your anger down
                                                         D
throw your fist into the air
G                                                                  C                                                                  G
Tell all your friends that you ll stand strong until the end
                                                 D                                                                  G
let them all know their Father cares

[Instrumental part]: G C G D - G C G D G

G                                                                  C                                                                  G
I ve been alone since the day I was born
                                                                                                                 D
Living my life just for myself
                                                                                                                 G                                                                  C                                                                  G
Just drinking and eating, but never believing
                                                                                                                 D                                                                  G
Going to church just for my health

One day the man of God stood and he told me
the Father s got a plan for my life
Well this news hit my head, like a punch from uncle Ned
So I went and found me self a wife

[Chorus]

Well I found me self a girl, who was lovely as a pearl
Until she turned out to be a man
Well I puked and I screamed, cause she wasn t as she seemed Man, I got dealt a rotten hand

[Chorus]

[Instrumental part]: G C G D - G C G D G

Well the moral of my story was the tale of my pride
It s my own selfishness that lied
For if I follow my own plan, I will falter at the end
My Father s got a plan for my life

So now I follow Him with my back turned from sin
Lead me on my Father Adonai
I will be your man, I will be the one to stand
Thanks for being the guide of my life

[Chorus]

[Fade Outro]
