

Montezuma
Fleet Foxes

Ok, so on the album I think he uses a kind of open tuning, but when he plays it live, he uses standard tuning in the key of C. Here are the chords as far as I can make them out. He is travis picking. Hope this is helpful!

Intro: C

C F-G-C Em
So now I am older F Em
than my mother and father Am
when they had their daughter G F G G7
now what does that say about me?

Oh how could I dream of such a selfless and true love could I wash my hands of just looking out for me?

F Em Am
Oh man what I used to be
Em G Em Am F G G7
Oh man oh my oh me
F Em Am
Oh man what I used to be
Em G Em Am F G G7
Oh man oh my oh me

In dearth or in excess both the slave and the empress will return to the dirt, I guess, naked as when they came i wonder if I ll see any faces above me or just cracks in the ceiling nobody else to blame?

Oh man what I used to be
Oh man oh my oh me
Oh man that I used to be Oh man oh my oh me

INTERLUDE (this part I am less sure about)

F Am G
Ohhhhhhh
F Am G F G
Ohhhhhhhh

Gold teeth and gold jewelry every piece of your dowry throw them into the tomb with me bury them with my name

Unless i have someday Ran my wandering mind away

Oh man what i used to be Montezuma to Tripoli
Oh man oh my oh me
