

Factory Girls
Flogging Molly

[Verse]

D

Build a bridge or maybe two

D

Together held with footsteps she outgrew

Em

G

D

But now she sits alone, everyone's long gone

D

She dances in a photograph

D

When it was good to joke and have a laugh

Em

D

But that was yesterday, if only today

G

Now the walls are crawling faces

D

that still breathe

G

A

But before she nods her head what's left but sleep

[Chorus 1]

D

She hears a chorus of factory girls

G

Singin' in the streets

C

Drinkin' their coca-colas

A

After washing your filthy sheets

[Verse]

D

Chasin' down the avenue

D

After a childhood that she never knew

Em

Choking on woodbine

G

D

Cigarettes just kill the time

G

Now the walls are crawling faces

D

that still breathe

G

A

But before she nods her head what's left but sleep

[Chorus 2]

D

She hears a chorus of factory girls

G

Singin aoin and all

C

Empty are their pockets

A

But their voices are filled with song

[Verse]

D

Come day go day

A

Wish in my heart it was Sunday

G

A

Drinking buttermilk all the week

D

And whiskey on a Sunday (traditional)

G

Now the walls are crawling faces

D

that still breathe

G

A

But before she nods her head what s left but sleep

[Chorus 1]

D

She hears a chorus of factory girls

G

Singin in the streets

C

Drinkin their coca-colas

A

After washing your filthy sheets

[Chorus 1]

D

She hears a chorus of factory girls

G

Singin in the streets

C

Drinkin their coca-colas

A

After washing your filthy sheets

[Outro]

D

Slayed Richard and his court of Kings

D

He stole my heart and many other things

Em

But me I took his crown

G

D

Wish he was here to steal it now
