

Revolution

Flogging Molly

I know there is already a tab for this, but after listening to the track numerous times

I ve finally came with the finished project, check it out!

THIS IS THE ACOUSTIC VERSION (although you can use it with the normal studio version as well)

Key:- D Add little finger under the third finger then pull off

You may need to listen to the song to get the strum pattern.

I spent twenty-seven years in this factory
And the boss man says, hey you re not what we need
The penguins in the suits they know nothing but greed
 G A
It s a solitary life when you ve mouths to feed

But who cares about us?

D A B5 A G A
B5 A x2

 D
Now I m back on the streets
 D
With my hands held shut

D A B5 A

 D D
I m a workingman without any work

D A B5 A

 D A G A
Well is this the way it s meant to be

 D A G A
Because I signed on for the American Dream

D A G A

Now, I write my name to the welfare scheme

G A

The money in the bank, it s history

Chorus.

D G D

So take me down to where the worlds collide

D G D

And leave me here til I m satisfied

B5 A D

So let the Revolution begin

D A B5 A G A

B5 A

Second verse exactly the same as the first verse!!!

Now I drag these bones

Cross the barren land

Where once a city, now an outstretched hand

We can t lose our sense of dignity

While the fat-faced cats lap up the cream

Another disappearing act falls up their sleeves

While the shirts on our back seek refugee

D G D

So take me down to where the worlds collide

D G D

And leave me here til I m satisfied

B5

Cause there ll come a day

A B5

When all of us will show, we won t be afraid

G A

Although we re crashing, we won t burn

B5 F# G A Em

Let the Revolution the Revolution begin

Trumpet solo

EM B5 A EM B5 F# A
