

Bird Song

Florence And The Machine

(Acapella)

Well I didn't tell anyone but
A bird flew by, and saw what I'd done
It set up a nest outside
And he sang about what I'd become

F

He sang so loud

C

He sang so clear

E Am
I was afraid all the neighbours would hear

F

C

So I invited him in, just to reason with him

E

Am

I promised I wouldn't do it again...

F

But he sang louder and louder inside the house

C

And now I couldn't get him out

E

So I trapped him under a cardboard box

Am

And stood on it to make him stop

F

I picked up the bird and above the dim I said

C

That's the last song you'll ever sing

F

Held him down, broke his neck

C

E

Am

Taught him a lesson he wouldn't forget

F

C

E

Am

But in my dreams began to creep

F

C

E

That old familiar tweet tweet tweet

E

I opened my mouth to scream and shout

Am

I waved my arms and flapped about

E

But I couldn't scream and I couldn't shout

Am

Couldn't scream and I couldn't shout

E

I opened my mouth to scream and shout

Am

I waved my arms and flapped about

E

But I couldn't scream, I couldn't shout

Am

F

C

The song was coming from my mouth

E Am

From my mouth (15x)
