

Delilah

Florence And The Machine

A Drifting through the halls with the sunrise(Holding on for your call)
F Climbing up the walls for that flashing light(I can never let go)
E F A Cause I m gonna be free and I m gonna be fine(Holding on for your call)
F G Cause I m gonna be free and I m gonna be fine(Maybe not tonight)
E F A And the sun is up and I m going blind(Holding on for your call)
F G Another drink just to pass the time(I can never say no)
E F A Cause I m gonna be free and I m gonna be fine(Holding on for your call)
E F A Cause I m gonna be free and I m gonna be fine(Maybe not tonight)

F It s a different kind of danger
G And the bells are ringing out
E And I m calling for my mother
F A As I pull the pillars down
F It s a different kind of danger
G And my feet are spinning round
E Never knew I was a dancer
F A Till Delilah showed me how

A F G E Dm C A

F Too fast for freedom
G Sometimes it all falls down
E These chains never leave me
Dm C A I keep dragging them around

F G Now I m dancing with Delilah and her vision is mine(Holding on for your call)

A different kind of danger in the daylight(I can never let go)
Took anything to cut you I can find(Holding on for your call)
A different kind of danger in the daylight(Can t you let me know?)
There is one more call and there is one more night(Holding on for your call)
Taking the pills just to pass the time(I can never say no)
Cause I m gonna be free and I m gonna be fine(Holding on for your call)
Cause I m gonna be free and I m gonna be fine!(Maybe not tonight!)

It s a different kind of danger
And the bells are ringing out
And I m calling for my mother
As I pull the pillars down
It s a different kind of danger
And my feet are spinning round
Never knew I was a dancer
Till Delilah showed me how

Now I m dancing with Delilah and her vision is mine(Holding on for your call)
A different kind of danger in the daylight(I can never let go)
Took anything to cut you I can find(Holding on for your call)
A different kind of danger in the daylight(Can t you let me know?)
