Too Much Is Never Enough
Florence And The Machine

[Intro]
E C#m A x4

[Verse]
```
E        C#m          A
```
And the crown it weighs heavy
```
E           C#m          A
```
 Till it s banging on my eyelids
```
                E                        C#m
```
Retreating in covers and closing the curtains
```
         A
```
One thing s for certain, oh
```
               E                 C#m
```
A year like this passes so strangely
```
```
Somewhere between sorrow and bliss

[Pre-Chorus]
```
    F#m      G#m A                 B
```
Oh, who decides from where up high?
```
C#m         G#m A
```
I couldn t say I need more time
```
     F#m        G#m A              B
```
Oh, grant that I can stay the night
```
C#m          G#m A
```
Or one more day inside this life

[Chorus]
```
E                       C#m                  A
```
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
```
F#m
```
Never enough
```
E                       C#m                  A
```
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
```
F#m
```
Never enough
```
E                       C#m                  A
```
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
```
F#m
```
Never enough
```
E                       D                  A
```
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
Never, never, never enough

[Verse]
```
E        C#m      A
```
Oh, you wondrous creature

```
E              C#m      A
Coming up who we are
                             E                           C#m
Cause I m retreating in covers and closing the curtains
               A
One thing s for certain, oh
               E                       C#m
A year like this passes so strangely
        A
Somewhere between sorrow and bliss, oh

[Pre-Chorus]
     F#m    G#m  A                   B
And who decides from where up high?
C#m         G#m  A
I couldn t say  I need more time
     F#m        G#m  A               B
Oh, grant that I can stay the night
C#m            G#m  A
Or one more day inside this life

[Chorus]
E                       C#m                  A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
F#m
Never enough
E                       C#m                  A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
F#m
Never enough
E                       C#m                  A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
F#m
Never enough
E                       D                    A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
Never, never, never enough

[Bridge]
        E                                   B/D#
And who cares about the thing I did that night?
Cdim C#m                    F#m      A
So what? Maybe Luna had it right
        E                           B/D#
And who cares if I m coming back alive?
Cdim C#m                              F#m      A
So what? At least I have the strength to fight

[Chorus]
E                       C#m                  A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
F#m
Never enough
```

E   C#m   A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
F#m
Never enough
E   C#m   A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
F#m
Never enough
E   D   A
Too much, too much, too much, too much, too much
Never, never, never enough

[Outro]
E   C#m A   F#m
One other year; a hundred flags flying in a field
E   C#m A   F#m
One more day, felt it let go of me
E   C#m A   F#m
One other year; a hundred flags flying in a field
E   D   A   F#m G#m
One more day, felt it let go of me
A
A hundred flags flying in a field
E   A   F#m
One more day, felt it let go of me
E   A   F#m
One other year; a hundred flags flying in a field
E   A   F#m
One more day, felt it let go of me
