

Breath Of Life
Florence + The Machine

Key: Dm
Fret: None

So, this one is actually very hard to play, you might have to really practice. There s a lot of chords and it was hard for me too to transcribe. I m not 100% sure on some of them but feel free to modify or correct.

It may be even harder to play than to sing hahah
Also depending on the twist you want to give it there s a number of chords you can play for each one.
Have fun!
