

Caught

Florence + The Machine

[Intro]

C F Em F x4

[Verse]

          C                                  Em      F G
It s the hardest thing I ve ever had to do
      Am                          Em      F
To try and keep from calling you
          C                                  Em  F
Well, can my dreams keep coming true
      G   Am                              Em
How can they, cause when I sleep
          F
I never dream of you

                                  G
As if the dream of you, it sleeps too
          Em                  F
But it never slips away
                                  G
It just gains its strength and digs its hooks
          Em                              F
To drag me through the day

[Chorus]

          Am Am/B C C/E F
And I m caught
                                  Am Am/B C C/E F
I forget all that I ve been taught
                                  Am Am/B C C/E F
I can t keep calm, I can t keep still
                                  Am Am/B C C/E F
Pulled apart against my will

[Verse]

          C                                  Em F      G
It s the hardest thing I ve ever had to prove
      Am                                  Em      F                  G
You turn to salt as I turned around to look at you
          C                                  Em                  F                  G
Old friends have said it, the books I ve read say it s the thing to do
          Am                                  Em
But it s hard to see it when you re in it
          F
Cause I went blind for you

G

Then you leave my head and crawl out of bed

Em

F

So conscious I m upset

G

And for those hours deep in the dark

Em

F

Perhaps you don t exist

[Chorus]

Am Am/B C C/E F

But I m caught

Am Am/B C C/E F

I forget all that I ve been taught

Am Am/B C C/E F

I can t keep calm, I can t keep still

Am Am/B C C/E F

Pulled apart against my will

Dm

C

And I was thrashing on the line

F

Somewhere between

Dm

C

Desperate and divine

F

Dm C F

I can t keep calm, I can t keep still

Dm C F

Persephone will have her fill
