HURRICANE DRUNK by Florence and the Machine
First tab I ve ever done. Don t hate too too much!

Hey! So I was listening to the song and this is what I got. It appears to me that the chords I have are a combination of things in the song, but it sounds pretty good. Although I don t know the bridge. Try it!

F#m: 004222
Dmaj7: 000222
Bm7: 020202

Dmaj7 Bm7 B F#m
No walls can keep me protected

Dmaj7 Bm7
No sleep

B F#m Dmaj7
Nothing in between me and the rain

Bm7 B
And you can t save me now

F#m Dmaj7
I m in the grip of a hurricane

Dmaj7 Bm7 B
I m gonna blow myself away

B E
I m going out

Am A
I m gonna drink myself to death

A E
And in the crowd

Am A
I see you with someone else

A E
I brace myself

Am A

Cause I know it s going to hurt

A F#m
But I like to think at least things can t get any worse

No hope
Don t want shelter
No calm
Nothing to keep me from the storm
And you can t hold me down
Cause I belong to the hurricane
It s going to blow this all away

I m going out
I m gonna drink myself to death
And in the crowd
I see you with someone else
I brace myself
Cause I no it s going to hurt
But I like to think at least things can t get any worse

I hope that you see me
Cause I m staring at you
But when you look over
You look right through
Then you lean and kiss her on the head
And I never felt so alive
And so dead

I m going out
I m gonna drink myself to death
And in the crowd
I see you with someone else
I brace myself
Cause I no it s going to hurt

I m going out

I m going out
I m gonna drink myself to death
And in the crowd
I see you with someone else
I brace myself
Cause I no it s going to hurt

I m going out (x6)
