

Landscape

Florence + The Machine

Intro - G Bm D F#

She can't see the landscape anymore It's all painted in her grief
All of her history etched out at her feet
Now all of the landscape, it's just an empty place
Acres of longing, mountains of tenderness

Cause she's just like the weather, can't hold her together
Born from dark water, daughter of the rain and snow
Cause it's burning through the bloodline, It's cutting down the family tree
Growing in the landscape, darling, in between you and me

Bm

She wants the silence but fears the solitude (Strum once)
She wants to be alone and together with you
So she ran to the lighthouse, hoped that it would help her see (Back to original strumming)
She saw that the lighthouse had been washed out to sea

Cause she's just like the weather, can't hold her together
Born from dark water, daughter of the rain and snow
Cause it's burning through the bloodline, It's cutting down the family tree
Growing in the landscape, darling, in between you and me

I wanna give you back the open sky G (Strum once)

Give you back the open sea Bm

Open up the ages, darling, for you to see D F#

You put the gun into your mouth to bite G (Quietly)

You pull it and spit out Bm

Cause it s running in the family D

Oh the rich and to me F#

She s just like the weather, can t hold her together G Bm D F#

Born from dark water, daughter of the rain and snow G Bm D F#

Cause it s burning through the bloodline,It s cutting down the family tree G Bm D F#

Growing in the landscape, darling, in between you and me G Bm D F#

G Bm D F#

G Bm D (stop)