words:

I never knew what you thought was here
Get another fear to add to the list
I ve been collecting little lies
Just to put on the special tape
I get them to play the day you die

I ll tell them you were always frightened
Just like anybody else
And you cried inside just like me

You seem to live with fingertips
Wrapped around your face
Does it keep the dark away?
Talk to me and tell me
That all of them are wrong
And all my dreams will come
In time

Trying, trying to understand it all
To understand it all to make your head hurt

Yes you have all the pieces
They said that you had to collect
But what did you expect it all to amount to?

Trying, trying to understand it all
To understand it all to make your head hurt

...I think it s the first F.T.W tab here,
I hope you really enjoy easy-playing this great song and I m waiting for your
