Intro: A E D E x4

A F#m Bm1
They found my body near the river
A F#m Bm1
Now all the people in our town, they think it was your father
D A D A E
I didn't get your consent, but that's how I make my rent, the voyeur,
D A
It's hard to make a friend
E E7
When it's too hard to put down the lens
F#m D E
And so, I float
A F#m Bm1
Drifted about 50 miles past Jamestown
A F#m Bm1
I was recovered in the more where I floated onto shore
D A
While the James was good to me,
D A E
And the barbed wire, that's another story
D A
It's hard to rest in peace
E E7
When you can't get no sympathy
F#m
And so...
D A
I can't seem to keep my mind off that night
D A E
The way that you left with all your friends beneath the bar lights.
D A
I couldn't help but hate you
E E7

So I followed you, I followed you home

Chorus:

A C#m D
And oh, take off your clothes, stand by the window

B1 E
So I can see the scar that sits below your naval

A C#m D
And oh, with the Rosary, I wish that was me

B1 E
How I wish I could rest upon your chest forever

A E D E
I float, x3
A E D E x4
A E D

A F#m Bm1
I wish that I believed in heaven

A F#m Bm1
I can't thank Sunday School for that.

A F#m Bm1
Send me a seven digit pin code

A F#m Bm1
Let me repent, let me believe.

D A
We learn it all once we can comprehend

D A E
The folding of our hands, the bending of our knees

D A E E7
And the Hail Mary's all along the bedside

D A
My innocence must have caught his eye

D A E
Enough to ruin the last 16 years of my life

D A
It's so hard to repent

E E7
When you've been giving no such reason to believe

Chorus:

A C#m D
I took off my clothes, stood by the window

Bm1 E
Well don't you see that same scar sits below my naval?

A C#m
And oh, but it's there for life,

D
Better yet, the lack thereof

Bm1 E
How I wish I could come back as a piece of jewelry.

And oh,
A E D E

I float

A E D E

I float,

I float.
