This song is played with an dropped (low) E string (drop D tuning)

The chords came from one of the musicians itself via Twitter. I made this chord scheme accordingly

G is played like this 550033 (don't bar it!)
When playing D in the intro you have to strum all the strings! You ll hear why!
Rest of the chords are shown and explained below the scheme.

[INTRO]
D G D C D

[Verse]

Chords used:

C 032010

D 000232

A 002220

Em 022000

G 550033 Because of the dropped E String. I you prefer to play it without drop tuning, you can! but you ll need to play a normal open G chord instead.
 D

Bm 024432

Have fun breaking hearts with this great song!

And if any would happen to know the solo please post it in the comment section below so

I could add it to the tab.
