It Must Be Summer Fountains of Wayne

IT MUST BE SUMMER (Fountains of Wayne)

Intro: A A Asus4 Asus2 A

FIRST VERSE:

Α

It must be summer

Bm

Cause the days are long

G D

And I dial your number

Α

But you re gone, gone, gone

F#m

I d set out searching

Bm

But the car won t start

G

And it must be summer

D Dsus4 D

Cause I m falling apart

SECOND VERSE (same chords except last line):

I try your sister
On the jersey shore
She said you might be stopping by
But she s not sure
So I call your mother
On long island sound

She said it must be summer  $\begin{tabular}{lll} $D$ & $G/F\#$ $E$ & $G/F\#$ $E$ \\ \end{tabular}$

Cause you re never around

CHORUS:

D A

And the sun is beating me senseless

Bm A

I feel defenseless like a dying lamb

Bm F#m

I don t want to lie by the oceanside

Ε

Don t want to play in the sand

D

Can t you understand?

E Esus4 E

Can t you understand?

INSTRUMENTAL: First Verse Chords

(second verse chords)
It must be summer
Cause the streets are bare
And I try your number
But you re just not there
And the sun keeps shining
Til it s dead and gone
And it must be summer
Cause I can t go on... CHORUS TWICE