G D
He was killed by a cellular phone explosion
Em C
They scattered his ashes across the ocean
The water was used to make baby lotion
The wheels of promotion were set into motion

G D C
But the sun still shines in the summer time
I ll be yours if you ll be mine
I tried to change, but I changed my mind
Em D C G
Think I ll have another glass of Mexican wine

G D D/Eb
She lived alone in a small apartment
Em Em/D C Cm
Across the street from the health department
She left her pills in the glove compartment
That was the afternoon her heart went

And the sun still shines in the summer time
I ll be yours if you ll be mine
I tried to change, but I changed my mind
Think I ll have another glass of Mexican wine
Think I ll have another glass of Mexican wine
