

Someones Gonna Break Your Heart
Fountains of Wayne

Intro: A

A

Staring at the sun
With no pants on
How round and rosy
She thinks she knows me

Em D2

Fighting off a cold

Em D2 A

Murdering a campfire song

A

Spitting in the wind
From out a fast train
Or on a causeway
Trying to catch a bus

Em D2

Swear I gotta move

Em D2 A

Suffering the radio crime

D2

Whistle in the sweet pine trees
The imaginary airport breeze

F#m

It flickers and flows

D2

Fans fires in the road

A

E

And all we wanna do is go home

Bm

Someone s gonna break your heart

D

E

One cold gray morning

She sings

F#m C#m

Oh whoa oh, oh whoa oh...

D A E

Oh whoa oh, oh whoa oh...

A

Should we take this town

Do we want to

Tear the whole thing down

Em D2

Paint the rubble all tangerine

Em D2 A
Shimmer in the gas main fires

A
We don't promise and we tell no lies
Learn to paddle when the waters rise

Em D2
Melancholy comes

Em D2 A
Like a robin at your window

D2
So whistle in the sweet pine trees
The imaginary airport breeze

F#m
It flickers and flows

D2
Fans fires in the road

A E
And all we wanna do is go home

Bm
Someone's gonna break your heart

D E
One cold gray morning

The kids sing
F#m C#m
Oh whoa oh, oh whoa oh...

D A E
Oh whoa oh, oh whoa oh...

F#m G#m A
And the traffic goes round and round

Bm F#m E7 D
Swallowing the road and spitting out clouds

E7 F#m
And the spirit she hides

C#m D
On a damp path of moss and stone

Bm F#m A E
From a fear we are born with and never outgrow

F#m
And what else you can keep

G#m A D
Your American cash and smile

Bm
And the suits sing

F#m C#m
Oh whoa oh, oh whoa oh...

D A E
Oh whoa oh, oh whoa oh...

Someone's gonna break your heart [x3]