Let down and fallen out to be

You re disengaged

While she stays home

To pick up your tabs

Cause you re just horny
Db

With secret texts

From other names

Gb
In your old phone

By the picture frames

[Chorus]

And you think I must not remember

You think I must not remember

Survived by applause but still can t listen

The patron saint

Of disconnection

Of feel-no-shame

You leave a son

Who has your name

When you re finally gone

He ll be okay

You think I must not remember
