I m asking why, why, why me?

The streets is where I s born

Em Am

And the streets is where I ll die

G F E C

Until then the streets is where I ll be

С

The streets is where I s born

Em Am

And the streets is where I ll die

G F E D7

Until then the streets is where I ll be

C

So keep pouring the drinks till I forget my name

F

I love my life but it gets hard

! G

As I m sure it does for us all from time to time

C

So keep living it through, I ll keep living it too

F

I hang my head, hang it low

C G C

And I pray that it gets a little better down the line

C F C G Why? Why me?

C

The streets is where I s born

Em Am

And the streets is where I ll die

G F E D'

Until then the streets is where I ll be

Am F

Oh sweet mother of two you work hard, so hard to keep your heads above the  $\ensuremath{\mathbf{G}}$

water

Am F C G

And although I stand on the shore with a line, I can t seem to untangle it $Am$ $F$ $C$ $G$

From the selfish dreams of my own I wish I had just a little more money

Am F C

To help you out in the times when it s hard, so hard, so hard

The streets is where I s born

Em Am

And the streets is where I ll die

G F E C

Until then the streets is where I ll be
