

Mighty Sword Frames

The Frames " Mighty Sword

Intro

E C#m
F#m A E

C#m

I may not hold you

A E (repeat progression until last line)

For as long as forever exists

I may not know you

For as long as the heavens permit

There will be distance

And we ll both have to come to expect

B C#m

The wild ending of our dark and feathered friends

Chorus

E C#m

And we wield the mighty sword

B A E

That cuts through bone and lays the liars down

And we wield an angry sword

That softens stone and turns the tides around

So you called me over

And I ll wait by your building tonight

But you may not bother

But it s better than feeding the lie

I am receiving

The message that I need to go

But I m not leaving

Til one of us surrenders its soul

Outro ??? (personally, I d repeat the chorus here and end)

This is not my tab, but I modified it from this site:
