

Fool With Dreams
Framing Hanley

Alright this song was pretty tricky for me to learn. And I know everything isn't 100% and I'm sorry, but this is the closest I could get. This probably isn't how the chords are in the song - in terms of the chord forms and the tuning of the guitar - but I did my best at interpreting the song into how I play it which sounds relatively good. The chords are an odd strumming pattern to accompany the lyrics. So it might take some time to develop a strumming pattern that works for you.

Tuning: Standard
Capo: 1st Fret
