Lonely Home
Francesqa

hey, back with Lonely Home for the francesqa fans, tabbed by ear once again. this sounds good played in barre chords, but i like playing it in power chords too, i think it sounds much better and more like the song. thanks again, dannylane9!

Intro - e |---2---------|    play this until it kicks in.
        b |---5---------|

C#m G#m A E
C#m G#m B B

        C#m                 G#m
And I can promise you I ll change
              A           E
I ll make the time I spend, well spent
        C#m         G#m              B   B
And you can punish me for all of my mistakes
        C#m               G#m
But how was I to know it would like this
 A                    E
To know it would feel like this
         C#m             G#m             B             B
To learn everything I hate, would be come everything I miss

        A         E        B           Fsus4
I ll change into what, into what, I was scared to know
A        E        B             B
Into what, into what, you were scared to grow

   C#m        A     E        B
And I will be alone forever, I know
   C#m              A                E                      B
And I will love you every day until the Earth surrounds my bones
 C#m                     A
 Cos I don t know your hair
    E                 B
And I don t know your lips
   C#m            A        E        B
                 C#m
And I ve been wondering how long it takes for my love to give in

C#m        G#m              A              E
I was left without a conscience in my head
            C#m              G#m
You know I would want to give you everything

              B                   B
But couldn t afford to give you anything
 C#m           G#m              A          E
And I was on my own for the first time in my life
     C#m               G#m
I had pressure from all angles, honey
  B           B
You were all I had

          A         E         B                   B
So change into what, into what, you were scared to grow into

C#m           A    E       B
And I will be alone forever, I know
  C#m               A                  E                   B
And I will love you every day until the Earth surrounds my bones
      C#m               A
 Cos I don t know your hair
       E                 B
And I don t know your lips
  C#m           A             E                 B
              C#m
And I ve been wondering how long it takes for my love to give in

     C#m             G#m               A                  E
(And oh, what cursed place this is. I m waiting for the one.)

    C#m             G#m              B                  B
(And oh, what cursed place this is. I m waiting for love.)

   C#m           A    E       B
And I will be alone forever, I know
  C#m                 A                 E                  B
And I will love you every day until the Earth surrounds my bones
  C#m                    A
 Cos I don t know your hair
     E                 B
And I don t know your lips
  C#m           A             E                 B
              C#m
And I ve been wondering how long it takes for my love to give in.

End on one strum of C#m.
