These corrections are:

- 1) Replaced the open E chord at the end of the Verse Riff with a higher bar chord (the riff definitely rises at the end).
- 2) Modified the A E F# chord progression that occurs at the end of each verse Band . . . Thanks . . . No . . . with A G# F# (the progression definitely descends).
- 3) Added the flourish in the middle of the chorus (at the end of the line who has sung his bars ) E F F# (I think there s a musical name for this flourish but I can t think of it).

I d be happy to hear any feedback.

You have to listen closely to the recording to hear the Em/E/Esus thingy he does after the B...

The timing is pretty easy to learn, and I tried to indicate it as close as I could with the lyrics.
