Parry the Wind High, Low

This might be easier to play if you tune down a step. I think that's how it's done on the record. The closing progression was a bitch to figure, but I think I have it. Anyone have any idea who Desmond Dekker is?

Opening riff:

D	D#	D	D#	G	G#

-----1-----
-----0-----0-----0--2-3---3-2-3--
-0--2-3---3-2-3---0--2-3---3-2-3-----

D	D#

-----0-----
-0--2-3---3-2-3---

[With opening riff]
And if a ship meets your car
You know you can't go real far
Well they could treat you real nice
Or put a tracking device

Bb A
Way down inside

D A F D A F D# A F [twice]

D	A	F
I'm checking out inventions
D A	F	D# A F
at the UFO convention tonight
D	A	F D
Planes above the Hilton make it sunny
A	F	D# A F

Brought my money tonight
D A F
Blue blond ladies of abduction
D A F D# A F
strumming guitars of instruction tonight
D A F
A lot of wannabe truckers
D A F F#
Making eyes with starfuckers tonight

[opening riff again]

I ve got my hands on some sights
Electric glasses with lights
They got me feeling deluxe
For just a couple of bucks

Bb A
Way down inside

I m getting patterns from a trekker
And it sounds like soul records to me
They re waving hi from some gazebo
Waving on to Arecibo to me
I m getting patterns from a trekker
And it sounds like soul records to me
I m getting patterns from a trekker
And it sounds like Desmond Dekker to me

D F#
Sleep machine
D F#
In your silo
D F#
Transmarine
D F#
Things you ve never seen

D Am B F D#
Parry the wind high, low

[Repeat to fade]
