Capo on 3

A G D
They may not drink homemade wine, of know someone who makes moonshine, but some of us still do.

A G D
You might not work in the rain, You might not hunt no game, but some of us still do.

A G
You might not know when to run, when to hold your ground when to grab your D
gun, but some of us still do.

Chorus

G D A G D
We re still out here on the edges, a hard earned dollar blue collar chosen
A G D A few, sons and daughters of small town living legends, you might not Eminor G D A
understand the backwoods point of view, but some of us still do.

A G D
You might not bow your head, every night before you go to bed, but some of us still do.

A G D
You might not live your life like your granddaddy did when he was alive, but some of us still do

A G D
You might not farm the land or even know a man whos got a plowboy tan, but some of us still do

Repeat Chorus

A G
You might not have a fightin side when someone dares to cross that line, D
but some of us still do

A G
You may not lay down your life for the land of the free for the stars and D
the stripes, but some of us still do
