

Words And Nothing More

Frank Hamilton

Words & Nothing More

Frank Hamilton

Tabbed by Ryan

Capo at 4th fret

The D used here is actually a Dadd4 (x54035)

C G Am7 G

Farewell the summer, and welcome in the rain
I found a lover, left me high and dry again
A non believer, I will never be
But theres no further questions in the case of you and me
No further questions in the case of you and me

Am7 C G D

I wish you weren t the first thing
On my mind in the morning
I ll put you in a love song
I ll put you in a love song

G D Em C

And soon you ll be words and nothing more
A song that I heard but never bought
And under Londons skies
We ll find our way, find our way back home

C G Am7 G

You are not a lover, so I am not your friend
This is not a rom-com, there will be no happy end
I have trouble sleeping, but I can dream for days
I can change my socks, but I will never change my ways
I can change my socks, but I will never change my ways

Am7 C G D

You won t always be the first thing
On my mind in the morning
I ll put you in a love song
I ll put you in a love song

G D Em C

And soon you ll be words and nothing more
A song that I heard but never bought
And under Londons skies
We ll find our way, find our way back home

D C

Oooohhh

C G Am7 G
I can change my socks, but I will never change my ways
I can change my socks, but I will never change my ways
I can change my socks, but I will never change my ways
I can change my socks, but I won t ever changeâ€|

G D Em C
And soon you ll be words and nothing more
A song that I heard but never bought
And under Londons skies
We ll find our way, find our way back home
A face in the crowd I used to know
Coz Darling right now I want you so
But under Londons skies I ll find my way find my way back home

G D Em C
Oooohhh