

Nights Become Days
Frank Turner

Capo on 3

Intro: E

E            A
We saw in the dawn from the roof of the bar

B            A            F#m
When nights become days and you've gone too far

E            A    B    A
We listened to songbirds and rush hour cars and welcomed in the day

E            A
You said, "London in summertime is great,

B            A    F#m
On days like this I feel like I could escape

E    A
From things that I've done and mistakes that I've made.

B    A    F#m
I'd wash it all away"

A    E    A    E
We bathed like swimmers in the morning sun, waiting for our night to end

A    E    A    Amaj7   A    E
It felt like one of us would come down hard and one of us would start again

E            A
It started out curious, it started out fun

B            A            F#m
We smoked in the woods when we were young

E            A
And secretly slipped something under our tongues

B    A
And danced the night away

E A

And everyone stumbles on old cocaine

B A F#m

It burns out the flesh, and it burdens the brain

E A B A F#m

'Til brown comes and whisks away your pain and you find you've lost your way

A E A E

We bathed like swimmers in the morning sun, waiting for our night to end

A E A Amaj7 A E

It felt like one of us would come down hard and one of us would start again

F#m B

Sink in the river for your death

F#m B

Sleep with the fishes, draw no breath

F#m B

Swallow forever 'til nothing's left

F#m

Take no rest

F#m B F#m E F#m

Oh my friend, if you made for the shore, you'd see us here, we're all waiting

F#m B F#m E F#m

Just cast your eyes down to the floor you'll see us here, we're waiting

F#m B

Don't sink in the river for your death

F#m B

You could sleep in the shade and draw some breath

F#m B

Could start fresh tomorrow, leave what's left

F#m E A

Please draw breath, please draw breath

E A

Let's let nights become days

E A E B F#m A B

So come down kid the roofs not safe now

E A E B F#m B A B A F#m A

All your friends are waiting for you to get some rest
