Frank Turner

Intro 4x: D Dsus2 D Dsus2

(one, two, one, two, three, four)

(verso 1)

G

Well i guess i should confess that i am starting to get old.

D

All the latest music fads all passed me by and left me cold.

A

G

All the kids are talking slang i won t pretend to understand.

D

D

All my friends are getting married. mortgages and pension plans.

G

And it s obvious my angry adolescent days are done.

D

And i m happy and i m settled in the person i ve become.

A

G

But that doesn t mean i m settled up and sitting out the game-

D

(deixe tocar)

Time may change a lot. but some things they stay the same.

(verso 2)

G

Oh maturity s a wrapped-up package deal or so it seems.

D

Ditching teenage fantasy means ditching all your dreams.

A

G

All your friends and peers and family solemnly tell you you will

D

D

Have to grow up be an adult. yeah be bored and unfulfilled.

G

But no one's yet explained to me exactly what's so great

D

About slaving 50 years away on something that you hate.

A

About meekly shuffling down the path of mediocrity.

G

D

(deixe tocar)

Well if that's your road then take it but it's not the road for me.
