-INTRO-

D Riff

D Riff

-VERSE-

D Riff

Parents don t be too kind to your kids

D Riff

Or else how will they grow up to be

D Riff

Louche Parisian sinners and Nashville country singers

D Riff

Singing about the terrible things their parents did

D Riff

Lovers dont be sparing with the truth

D Riff

Break their hearts if that s what you must do

D Riff

Fill them with remorse tinged with hope of course

D Riff

E riff

Let their baser instincts pull them through

-CHORUS-

E7

Gsus2

E riff

And though it seems a little strange to me

E7

Gsus2

People never really change it seems

-VERSE-

D Dsus2/G
All across America
A7 riff D Dsus2/G A7 riff
Waitresses and boys who play guitar
D Dsus2/G
They fall in love and fall out
A7 riff
The boys have something to sing about
D Dsus2/G A7 riff
And the girls go drown their sorrows in the bars

D Dsus2/G A7 riff
While in front rooms all across the old country
D Dsus2/G A7 riff
Sat spellbound in front of their TVs
D Dsus2/G
Younger brothers and sisters
A7 riff
Wonder at what they re missing
D Dsus2/G A7 riff E riff
Wonder how the air tastes when you re really free

-CHORUS-

E7 Gsus2 E riff
And though it seems a little strange to me
E7 Gsus2 E riff
Well you can never really change it seems
E7 Gsus2 E riff
We re all broken boys and girls at heart
E7 Gsus2
Come together, fall apart

-POWER VERSE-

D5~ NEW RIFF
And in Battersea power station the Fisher King
D5~ NEW RIFF
Ponders on his ruin among many other things
D5~
He folds his broken hands
D5~ NEW RIFF
Surveys his baron lands
D5~ D5~ D5
And prays for hope to whisper in the wind

-BRIDGE-

Gsus2
Cause we were born without reason
A7
We ll die without meaning

Dm

Dm/C

And the world will not shrug all that

Gsus2

Much at our passing

G6

You can try and try and try

A7

D Dsus2/G A7 riff 2

But no one ever makes it out alive

Dsus2/G

A7 riff 2

But no one ever makes it out alive

-OUTRO-
