

The Slow Train
Frank Turner

Great historical song lamenting the closure of many British railway stations during the 60s. Originally written and performed by Flanders & Swann.

CAPO 5

Miller s Dale for Tideswell ...
Kirby Muxloe ...
Mow Cop and Scholar Green ...

C#	Bbm	Ebm7	G#
No more will I go to Blandford Forum and Mortehoe
C#	Bbm	Ebm7	G#
On the slow train from Midsomer Norton and Mumby Road.
Fm	Bbm
No churns, no porter, no cat on a seat
Ebm7	Cm	F
At Chorlton-cum-Hardy or Chester-le-Street.
Bbm	Ebm7
We won t be meeting again
G#
On the Slow Train.

I ll travel no more from Littleton Badsey to Openshaw.
At Long Stanton I ll stand well clear of the doors no more.
No whitewashed pebbles, no Up and no Down
From Formby Four Crosses to Dunstable Town.
I won t be going again
On the Slow Train.

Fm	Ebm7
On the Main Line and the Goods Siding
G#
The grass grows high
Fm	Ebm7
At Dog Dyke, Tumby Woodside
G#
And Trouble House Halt.

The Sleepers sleep at Audlem and Ambergate.
No passenger waits on Chittening platform or Cheslyn Hay.
No one departs, no one arrives
From Selby to Goole, from St Erth to St Ives.
They ve all passed out of our lives
On the Slow Train, on the Slow Train.

Cockermouth for Buttermere ... on the Slow Train,
Armley Moor Arram ...

Pye Hill and Somercotes ... on the Slow Train,
Windmill End.