

To Absent Friends
Frank Turner

B
Lunchtime Friday, leave work early
C#
Rushing through the suburbs to the station to catch the train
E E
Heading up to town to Dave s to get my glad rags on
B
Because lately I ve been running down, little things catching up
C#
Excuses stretched thin and it s hard not giving up
E E
Tonight we re going to get it right, we re going to have us a good one

C# B
And the roll call is missing a name
C# A
Since you left things haven t been the same
E B A
But I don t blame you, there was nothing here to make you stay
C# B C#
But I remember the way that you d light up a room when you walk in,
A E
The way that you d lead a crowd when you sing
B A
Jamie, this one is for you.

B C# E

B C#
Pre-club beers at Dan s before we hit the road
We re nicely warmed up, pleasantly half-loaded
E E
Ready for a night on fire, we re going to get out the big guns
B
And I run down the numbers, scan through the faces
C#
Run through the plans, scout out the places
E E
I m electrified, surrounded, but can t shake the feeling of still missing something or someone

C# B
And the roll call is missing a name
C# A
Since you left things haven t been the same

EBA

But I don't blame you, there was nothing here to make you stay

C#BC#

But I remember the way that you'd light up a room when you walk in,

AE

The way that you'd lead a crowd when you sing

BAE

Jamie, this one is for you.

BA

Jamie, this one is for you.