* The G#m s are optional (heard it on a live version, liked it)

* After the A s, walk down to the F#m (SN BASS) A-G#-F#

```

E           B           A           F#m           G#m           C#m
E           B           A           F#m           G#m           C#m
I mean her Mendcino Bino by where some bugs had made it red
E           B           A           F#m           G#m           C#m
She ruled the toads of the short forest and every newt in Idaho
E           B           A           F#m           G#m           C#m

And every cricket who had chorused by the bush in Buffalo
 E B A F#m G#m C#m
 She said she was a magic mama and she could throw a mean Tarot
 E B A F#m G#m C#m
 And carried on without a comma that she was someone I should know

D A G D
 She had a snake for a pet and an amulet
 D A G D
 And she was breeding a dwarf, but she wasn't done yet
 E B F#m C#m
 She had gray-green skin, a doll with a pin
 B A
 I told her she was alright, but I couldn't come in

And so she wandered throught the doorway just like a shadow from a tomb
 She said her stereo was four-way and I d just love it in her room
 Well, I was born to have adventure, so I just followed up the steps
 Right past her fuming incense stencher to where she hung her castinettes
 She stripped away her rancid poncho and laid out naked by the door
 We did it til we were unconcho and it was useless anymore

Chorus

Repeat second verse
 Verse End Riff
